LISA DOWNING – Interpreting Human Experiences through music! Lisa is a multiple award-winning, international composer, concert and recording artist who is re-defining the genre of solo piano.

Lisa performs all over the world with Grammy Award-winning musicians such as Liz Story, David Lanz, Suzanne Ciani, and Peter Kater. From the majestic Cap Vermell Cultural Center for the “First International Pianists of the World” tour in Mallorca, Spain to the historic Teatro Independencia in Mendoza, Argentina and right here in the United States, Lisa’s audiences are entranced by the intense music that describes our lives!

Lisa’s CD “Christmas for Two” won Holiday Album of the Year, and her album “A Delicate Balance” received multiple awards including consideration for Grammy nomination and was ranked in the top 5 Albums for worldwide airplay in its genre.

“Lisa’s performance will blow away all your previous assumptions about solo piano...” ~ ColoradoMusicBuzz.com/August 2010

“Lisa’s playing touches all your emotions, providing them with a startling mastery of her own beautiful and heartfelt voice. Her compositions are works of deep and intense music to which the listener will not feel indifferent!” ~ Kathy Parsons/MainlyPiano.com

“Downing has been compared to Liz Story and Peter Kater and rightly so... the adventurous and quirky spirit of Bruce Hornsby can also be detected with her engaging arrangements, lyrical melodies, and rapturous chords!” ~ Raj Manoharan/Reviewer
